Dear Mr. Darvis

Thank you for your time in our recent phone conversation on August 11th in regards to a request that I need, for an additional time or extension on my project in my own home at 2819 Doolittle Ave in Arcadia. It has been almost a year now since the last inspection back in August 14,1996 for Lath. Int./Dry wall and it did pass already. I appologize for the long delay , due to a personal family matter that occurred during my last stage of my project that held me back. First of all, I had a death in the family and it cost me a lot of grief and time , in addition to that my wife had a baby. Infact this addition to my new home was for my newborn baby and we were hoping that it would be finish in a timely manner. Anyhow the project is almost finish and I should be finish in less than 30 days. You have mentioned to me over the phone that with a letter sent to you in regards to my delay that you will review my permit and if I was to be given an extra time, that it would only be for 30 days, which should give me enough time to finish up the job for the final inspection.

Thank you for your time and kind consideration to this matter.

Sincerely,

Norman Dlea Paz
(Home Owner / Owner Builder)
