

GO GREEN. RECYCLE FOR A CLEAN LA.

Tuesday, November 10, 2009

SPEAKERS

Chairman of the Board Don Knabe

Assembly Member Mike Davis

Supervisor Zev Yaroslavsky

Gail Farber, Director of Public Works

NBA Champion Luke Walton

Rudy Sanchez, Student, Environmental Charter High School

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

Danny Romero, ABC7 Eyewitness News Weathercaster

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

1:30 pm to 4:30 pm – Environmental Fair

1:30 pm to 3:00 pm – Autograph signing by Argelia Atilano at the KLOVE 107.5 booth

2:45 pm to 3:00 pm – Special Presentation

3:00 pm to 3:30 pm – Press Conference

3:30 pm to 4:30 pm – Bring in your 5 plastic bags, and help Luke Walton build the world's biggest plastic bag ball.

Brag about your Bag[®]

Campaign Partners

Heal the Bay, EarthShare of California, 1 Bag at a Time, Earthwise Bags, Ralphs, Albertsons, HOWS, Top Valu, Valu Plus, 710ESPN, KLOVE 107.5, La Nueva 101.9, and ABC7

Campaign Sponsors

Waste Management, The Gas Company, NBC Green is Universal, and County Sanitation Districts

Thanks to Philippe's, La Pizza Loca, Nature's Bottles, and Kangen Water for the generous food and water donations, Wilshire Limousine Services for transportation services, and the San Gabriel Valley Conservation Corps for its volunteers.

I pledge to work toward making our communities greener and to preserve our environment by:

- ✦ Practicing the three R's—Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle
- ✦ Supporting litter reduction efforts
- ✦ Using nontoxic, natural, and local products
- ✦ Promoting the Clean LA website as the gateway for access to numerous environmental programs and resources

Through these collective efforts, residents will live and work in clean and sustainable communities.

Los Angeles County Residents and Businesses: Visit www.CleanLA.com or call our hotline at 1 (888) CLEAN LA and get answers to all of your environmental questions.

Cities and Organizations: Visit www.CleanLA.com and browse the Clean LA toolbox for news releases, presentations, links, and everything you need to support a clean LA County.