

Summary of Stormwater Education Activities

1. Mass mail
 - a. Pamphlets regarding used oil recycling, e-waste recycling, and household recycling.
 - b. County's pollutant specific flyers (cigarette butts and trash).
2. Earth Day
 - a. Held at Eco-Station, gave various pollution prevention materials from County and State Conservation including posters, pamphlets, key chains, small trash bins, pencils, rulers, etc.
3. Fiesta La Ballona
 - a. Hosted by EPO Division and Public Works department. Had storm water and recycling games offering prizes such as reusable mugs, oil rags, and linen shopping bags.
4. Car Show
 - a. Gave out oil rags and information about oil recycling.
5. Ballona Creek Cleanup Event
 - a. Gave educational materials to volunteers, showcased EPO's programs and contact information.
6. City Hall
 - a. All types of information and giveaways are available from the counter.
 - b. New ENVIRONMENT section of City's website has been developed.
 - i. Storm water section will be updated to incorporate more information.