

Ave M and 62nd Street West 3.2 MG Reservoir

This project involves the construction of a 3.2 million gallon storage tank southeast of the intersection of Avenue M and 62nd Street West in Palmdale. This reservoir will feed the west side of the Lancaster system's 2555 pressure zone. This project is currently in design and is expected to begin construction in Fall 2016.

