

Construction of Well 27-7 and Sun Village Pump Station Upgrades

This project consisted of the drilling and equipping of a new groundwater well in the unincorporated Los Angeles County community of Littlerock. The project also included the abandoning of an existing well and the demolition of an existing pump station. The objective was to improve the quality and the reliability of the Littlerock water supply system. Construction of this project was completed in October 2009.

