Section 83.2 of Title 27 of the County of Los Angeles Electrical Code requires that all electrical materials, devices, appliances, and equipment shall be in conformity with the provisions of the Code, shall comply with nationally recognized standards, and shall be certified by a recognized testing laboratory as acceptable to the Chief Electrical Inspector.

Attached are lists of acceptable testing laboratories:

- Field Evaluation Organization Laboratories (Attachment A) - May field evaluate specific equipment and perform ground fault tests for electrical equipment. A detailed test report must be submitted to Building and Safety Division (BSD) for its approval. BSD will perform the actual field inspection of the equipment. Additional fees other than permit fees will be collected to review the report as required per Section 82.8(a)(20).
- Ground Fault Protection Performance Test Laboratories (Attachment B) — May test Ground Fault Protection for equipment only as required per Section 230.95 of the County of Los Angeles Electrical Code. BSD will review the test result. No additional fees are required for this review. These tests may also be conducted by Field Evaluation Organization Laboratories or by the equipment manufacturer.
