

Assembly Committee on Natural Resources

LONT HANCOCK
CHAIR

Interim Hearing of the Assembly Committee on Natural Resources

November 16, 2005
1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Los Angeles City Hall
200 North Spring Street
John Ferraro Council Chambers, Room 340
Los Angeles, California

Conversion Technologies in California

- 1) Introductory Comments by Chair and Members
- 2) State of Waste in California
State of California's landfill capacity, landfill growth in the next 10 years, and the need for new alternatives for landfills.
- 3) What are Conversion Technologies?
 - a) History of conversion technologies in California.
 - b) Where are existing facilities in California? Are they operating commercially?
If not, why?
 - c) How do we define conversion technologies now?
- 4) Health Impacts of Conversion Technologies in California
What are the health implications of conversion technologies in California? Why do we care?
- 5) Local Government Perspective
Local government perspectives on conversion technology facilities in California and how they fit into their waste diversion goals.
- 6) Where do we go from here?
What is the impact of conversion technologies on the recycling economy?
- 7) Public Comment

